

MAN Nutzfahrzeuge AG announces changes in the Executive Board

Munich, 16 Sept 2005

Peter Erichreineke, to date Managing Director of MAN Nutzfahrzeuge Vertrieb GmbH (MVD), Deutschland, will succeed Fred van Putten as the Director of Sales as of January 1st 2006. Peter Erichreineke has been in the company since 1980. In the course of his career he has had various managerial positions in the sales and service sector through to his top managerial position for sales in Germany.

As of January 1st 2006 Fred van Putten will become the Managing Director of MAN Finance International GmbH (MFI). He has been responsible for the restructuring of the international sales network of MAN Nutzfahrzeuge. From 2006 he will continue to promote the expansion of business and the internationalisation of the financial services subsidiary of the MAN Group.

During the first quarter of 2006, Lars Wrebo, to date at Scania, will succeed Dr. Franz Breun as member of the Executive Board, responsible for Production. Dr. Breun has been a Member of the Executive Board of MAN Nutzfahrzeuge AG since 1991. In this time he has been responsible for the development of the international production network of MAN Nutzfahrzeuge. Dr. Breun will be retiring after helping Mr Wrebo to familiarise himself with his new tasks. Lars Wrebo has occupied various managerial positions at Saab and Scania, where he was finally the Senior Vice President for Chassis and Cabs.
